

Commercial Property Update 2010 A Seminar with Hannah Mackinlay

WHY ATTEND?

2010 sees some important cases and developments in Commercial Property Law and Practice : the new LR Portal rolled out, Community Infrastructure Levy plus important cases on rent review, break clauses, insolvency etc. This seminar will review the key law and practice points over the last twelve months to ensure that you are up to date with these changes, focussing on matters such as:

- Latest cases on break clauses, surrenders, service charges and rent reviews;
- Land Registry Portal: the story so far, has it worked and what are the important lessons learnt?;
- Community Infrastructure Levy - will it CIL the deal?;
- Parking Easements - are we there yet?;
- Break clauses - the importance of getting it right first time;
- Bad tenants and getting rent from an administrator;
- Plus virtual assignments, virtual execution and virtually;
- Everything new and crucial to commercial property lawyers;
- A Q&A session.

Friday 1st of October 2010

1:30pm to 4:30pm

Venue: Birmingham Law Society, Cornwall Buildings, 45-51 Newhall Street, Birmingham
B3 3QR

3 Hours CPD

Member Fee: £99 plus VAT, Non-Member Fee: £115 plus VAT

To book onto this seminar:

Telephone Glenda Rogers, Professional Services Manager on 0121 222 4193

or e-mail:

glenda@birminghamlawsociety.co.uk

or

book online:

www.birminghamlawsociety.co.uk

Speaker: Hannah Mackinlay

Hannah has over 25 years experience dealing with commercial property gained at senior or partner level with firms such as Pinsents, Putsmans and Shoosmiths. She has also worked for local authorities. In addition to acting for major landowners, local authorities, development agencies, national house builders, banks, building societies and PLCs, she has also dealt with high street commercial leases and small developers. In 1995, Hannah obtained a Masters Degree in Environmental Law . For the last 5 years, Hannah has delivered hundreds of seminars for a variety of training providers. Her seminars are informal and interactive and are often combined with additional material including interviews with experts.